

“My name is

BRADFORD ROBERT ALEXANDER DONELY...

That’s BRAD for short.

But I’m not short! I’m the tallest kid in my class. In fact, I’m probably the tallest kid in my whole school. I bet if you lined up all of the kids on the planet that were my age, I’d be close to the tallest. Since I’m so tall, I probably will end up playing professional basketball when I grow up.”

“Yeah, Right!”

“Hey, Brad! Look! We got a new van last night!
It can hold seven people, and it even has a TV!”

“WELL, I CAN TOP That...”

We bought a brand new van last week. It can hold 17 people. It has a TV, a GPS, and a J-O-B!”

“What’s a J-O-B?”

“Jacuzzi-on-Board!”

“Yeah right, Braaaaag...”

“A PULL-UPPER listens when someone else speaks.
He doesn't try to top or defeat.

Instead, he gives credit for what the person has done.
He allows others to become number one.”

“Most kids like to be around people who can ADD TO what They Say, not take from it!”

“BUT I ALWAYS ADD
TO what PEOPLE Say!”

“Yes, but when you do that are your words about the person who is talking, or are they about you? And, is what you say the truth, or are you making it up?”

“Brad, I think if you can become more of a ‘PULL-UPPER’ and less of a ‘ONE-UPPER,’ life as you know it will really change!”

“BUT HOW DO I DO THAT?”
