

Contents

	Page	Handouts
Introduction	v
Teacher Notes	vii
Part 1: Basic Concepts
1 Topic and Closing Sentences	3	1, 2
2 Using Details	9	3
3 Arranging Details	13
4 Transitional Devices	15	4
5 Parallel Construction	19	5, 6, 7, 8
6 Coordination and Subordination	29	9, 10, 11, 12
7 Active and Passive Voice	41	13, 14
8 Dangling and Misplaced Modifiers	47	15, 16, 17, 18
9 Economy of Language	55	19, 20, 21
10 Using Colorful Language	63	22, 23, 24
11 Revising a Paragraph	71	25, 26
Part 2: Thinking Skills
12 Seeing Relationships	77	27
13 Seeing Relationships through Analogies	83	28, 29
14 Thinking Deductively	89	30, 31, 32
15 Thinking Inductively	93	33, 34
16 Recognizing Faulty Thinking	97	35
17 Arguing and Persuading	103	36, 37
Part 3: Methods of Development
18 Introductory Paragraphs	111	38, 39, 40
19 Closing Paragraphs	119	41, 42
20 Understanding Definition	123	43
21 Writing a Definition	127	44
22 Understanding Comparison and Contrast	129	45, 46
23 Writing a Comparison and Contrast	135	47, 48
24 Understanding Cause and Effect	139	49, 50
25 Writing a Cause and Effect Composition	145	51, 52
26 Understanding Analogy	149	53, 54
27 Writing an Analogy	153	55

28	Understanding Inferences	155	56
29	Developing a Process for Analysis	161	57, 58, 59
30	Writing a Literary Analysis	167	60, 61, 62
31	Revising a Multi-Paragraph Composition	177	63, 64, 65, 66

Part 4: The Total Composition

32	Writing a Thesis for a Multi-Paragraph Composition	189	67
33	Using Background Information	193	68, 69
34	Expanding an Introductory Paragraph	199	70
35	Creating Interest in the Introductory Paragraph	203	71
36	Analyzing the Thesis Statement for Methods of Development	205	72, 73
37	Organizing a Development	211	74
38	Using Transition	215	75
39	Writing a Development	217
40	Writing Conclusions	219	76
41	Analyzing a Multi-Paragraph Composition	221	77, 78, 79
42	Revising a Multi-Paragraph Composition	227	80
43	Realizing Progress	229	81