Activity 14a- World Bank Loan Application

Purpose: Students will devise a development project for a developing nation that is worthy of a World Bank Loan.

Materials: Loan application, Country Economic Information

Procedures:

1. Pair the students up. Select one to be the World Bank Loan Officer and one to be the official from a developing nation, the applicant.
2. Have the pairs of students work together filling out the form.
3. The applicants will fill out the first 10 sections of the form that explains what the loan is for. The Loan Officers can offer assistance.
4. Have the Loan Officer complete sections 11-13. There they will decide to approve or decline the loan and explain their decision.
5. After the forms are completed have the class come together and ask questions:
  - Whose projects did the World Bank approve?
  - What are the successful projects and how will they help your nations?
  - What are some of the drawbacks of these approved projects?
  - What projects did the World Bank not approve?
  - What changes could be made to those project proposals?
  - What were some of the drawbacks for these declined projects?

Evaluation: Use the 5-point evaluation rubric for student behavior in cooperative groups, student verbal responses and student written responses. (1, 2 and 3)
